

GRAZIANO CALDIANI

General Manager

Graziano Caldianni was born at Reggio Emilia in 1951.

With a degree in law, he is a lawyer and a qualified accounting auditor.

He joined Banca Popolare di Bergamo in 1975, where he worked in the commercial network, moving to the Human Resources Department in 1977.

In 1979 he entered the Legal Department becoming head of it at the end of 1986.

While employed in a managerial role, he also worked with the University of Bergamo in the field of banking law for eleven years from 1982 until 1993.

In 2000 he was appointed Chief of Human Resources, a position he maintained when the BPU Group was formed in 2003 and also became Deputy General Manager.

When the UBI Group was established in 2007, he was appointed Joint General Manager and Chief of the Human Resources Macro Area of the Parent. In October of that same year he assumed responsibility for the Human Resources and Organisation Macro Area. He's also member of the Board of Directors of UBISS.

He has been General Manager of UBI Banca since 1st October 2010.

October 2011