Article 22. Supervisory Board.

22.1 - Composition.

The Supervisory Board is composed of a minimum of 15 (fifteen) and a maximum of 21 (twenty-one) members, including non-shareholders, appointed by the Shareholders' Meeting.

The less-represented gender shall be reserved at least the number of board members established by laws in force on the matter of equal access to the administrative and control bodies of listed companies on regulated markets. The members of the Supervisory Board shall meet the integrity, professional and independence requirements provided for by the laws and regulations in force from time to time.

Furthermore, at least four board members shall be enrolled with the Register of Statutory Auditors and shall have practised as auditors for at least a three-year period and at least ten members shall meet the independence requirements provided for by the Corporate Governance Code promoted by Borsa Italiana S.p.A..

The requirements for registration in the statutory auditors' register and the independence requirements provided for by the Corporate Governance Code promoted by Borsa Italiana S.p.A. may be combined in the same person.

22.2 - Integration.

Where the number of members of the Supervisory Board was determined to be lower than the maximum number provided for above, the Shareholders' Meeting may increase their number during their term. The new members are appointed by the Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting as provided for by Article 23 of the Articles of Association, safeguarding the regulations on gender balance by applying the supplementary mechanism envisaged by Article 23.4.

22.3 - Duration.

The members of the Supervisory Board shall remain in office for three years and their term shall expire on the date of the next Shareholders' Meeting provided for in the second paragraph of Article 2364 bis of the Italian Civil Code. They may be re-elected.

Article 23. Election of the Supervisory Board.

23.1 - Slates of candidates.

The election of members of the Supervisory Board shall take place on the basis of slates prepared by Shareholders according to the following rules:

- a) Shareholders representing at least 0.5%, or the percentage set forth by regulations in force, of the ordinary share capital may submit a slate of candidates listed in order of progressive number, containing from a minimum of 2 (two) to a maximum of 21 (twenty-one) names. The slates shall be filed at the Company's registered office at least twenty-five days before the date of the Shareholders' Meeting called to elect the members of the Supervisory Board, together with the information relative to the Shareholders presenting the slates including the indication of the total percentage stake held, exhaustive information on the personal and professional characteristics of each candidate, a declaration of each candidate attesting that he/she meets the requirements, applicable to all or some of the members of the Supervisory Board, provided for by law, regulations and the Articles of Association, as well as a declaration in which he/she accepts the candidacy. In order to give evidence of the number of shares necessary to submit a slate, the relevant communication may also be submitted after filing of the slate, but not later than twenty-one days before the date set for the meeting, following the procedure set out in the applicable law;
 - b) each shareholder may not submit - and the persons having voting rights may not vote for - more than one slate of candidates, even by proxy or by fiduciary companies. Each candidate may only be part of one slate, if such condition is not met the candidate shall not be eligible;
 - c) each slate containing a number of candidates equal to or greater than 3 (three) shall be composed in such a way as to ensure the gender balance envisaged by current law;
 - d) if, upon the expiry of the term provided for by letter a) only one slate has been submitted, the Company promptly informs the market via a press release sent to at least two press agencies; in this case, slates may be presented within the time limit set out in the legislation in force, without prejudice to the other conditions and means of presentation provided for above;
 - e) the foregoing shall be without prejudice to the other and further provisions set forth by law as concerns the means and terms of submission and publication of the slates.
- Slates which do not comply with the above provisions shall be considered as not submitted. However, any irregularities in the slates concerning single candidates shall not result in the automatic exclusion of the entire slate, but only of the candidates involved in the irregularities.

23.2 - Voting.

The following procedure shall apply for the appointment of the Supervisory Board. Members are selected proportionally from the slates which have obtained votes; for this purpose, the votes obtained by each of the slates are divided by one, two, three, four and so on according to the number of members to be appointed. The resulting ratios are progressively attributed to the candidates of each slate according to the order of each slate. The ratios so attributed are listed in decreasing order: the candidates with the highest ratios are elected members of the Supervisory Board.

23.3 - Equality of ratio and ballot.

Should more than one candidate obtain the same ratio, the preferred candidate shall be the candidate belonging to the slate from which no Supervisory Board members, or the lowest number of Supervisory Board members has been appointed.

If no Supervisory Board member has been appointed from those slates, or the same number of Supervisory Board members has been appointed from those slates, the preferred candidate shall be drawn from the slate which has obtained the highest number of votes.

In case of equality of votes and ratio, a new vote is held by the whole Shareholders' Meeting in the form of a ballot, with the candidate who obtains a simple majority of votes being elected.

23.4 - Supplementary mechanism.

If, on the outcome of voting, the composition of the Supervisory Board does not reflect the gender balance envisaged by current regulations, the candidate of the over-represented gender with the lowest ratio shall be excluded. The excluded candidate shall be replaced by the subsequent candidate belonging to the less-represented gender within the same slate. If necessary, this procedure shall be repeated until the composition of the Board complies with current regulations.

If, even following the above replacement procedure, an insufficient number of Supervisory Board members with the requirements provided for by Article 22.1, paragraph 4 of the Articles of Association have been appointed, new replacements shall be performed according to a procedure similar to that set forth in paragraph 1, excluding the candidates who have the lowest ratio and do not meet either of the two requirements, always in compliance with the current regulations on gender balance.

If, through applying the afore-mentioned criterion, it is not possible to complete the number of board members to be appointed, the Shareholders' Meeting shall appoint the other Supervisory Board members with resolution adopted by a simple majority of votes cast on proposal submitted by the persons having voting rights attending the meeting.

23.5 - Supervisory Board member appointed by minorities.

The application of provisions from 23.2 to 23.4 shall in any case permit that at least one Supervisory Board member be elected by minority shareholders who are not connected, even indirectly, with shareholders who have presented or with persons who voted the slate which obtained the highest number of votes.

For this purpose, where necessary, the elected candidate with the lowest ratio shall be replaced by the candidate with the immediately lower ratio presented by a slate with the characteristics indicated above.

If, adopting the criterion set forth in the above paragraph, the gender balance required by current regulations is not achieved, the elected candidate with the lowest ratio shall be replaced by the subsequent candidate belonging to the less-represented gender and with the immediately lower ratio presented by a slate with the characteristics indicated above.

In the event that the slates with the characteristics indicated above contain no candidates belonging to the less-represented gender, the Shareholders' Meeting shall appoint a member in substitution with resolution adopted by a simple majority of votes cast on proposal submitted by persons having voting rights attending the meeting, in compliance with the principle of the need to represent minorities and the current regulations on gender balance.

23.6 - Single slate.

If only one slate is presented, the members of the Supervisory Board shall be elected from that single slate, up to the number of candidates on that slate.

23.7 - No slates.

Should no slate be submitted in a timely manner, the Meeting shall pass a resolution with the relative majority of votes of the capital represented in the meeting, without prejudice to the necessary compliance with the current regulations on gender balance. In case of equality of votes, candidates shall be appointed by means of a further ballot.

23.8 - Election of the Chairman and Deputy Chairpersons of the Supervisory Board.

The Chairman and the two Deputy Chairpersons shall be appointed by the Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting with specific resolutions approved by the majority of attending shareholders.

23.9 - Replacements.

If a member of the Supervisory Board leaves service for whatever reason, he/she shall be replaced by the first non-appointed candidate belonging to the slate of the Supervisory Board member leaving service, or, if, following the application of this criteria, the gender balance required by current regulations is not achieved, by the first non-appointed candidate belonging to the less-represented gender of the same slate as the member leaving service. If the person identified on the basis of the foregoing criterion does not meet the legal, regulatory or statutory requirements fulfilled by the outgoing member, the latter shall be replaced by the first unelected member from the same slate and in possession of the same requirements as the member to be replaced, in compliance, in any case, with the principle of the applicable rules on gender balance.

If, for whatever reason, it is impossible to proceed with the replacement on the basis of the above criteria, the outgoing Supervisory Board member shall be replaced immediately by the ordinary Shareholders' Meeting with a resolution passed with a simple majority as proposed by the attending members entitled to the right to vote, without any submission of slates, in compliance, in any case, with the principle of the applicable rules on gender balance.

The replacement of the Supervisory Board member shall in any case ensure the presence of at least one member with the characteristics provided for by Article 23.5., even through the application of procedures set forth by regulations in force.

The term of office of these members shall expire simultaneously with the term of the members in office at the time of their appointment.

23.10 - Incompatibilities.

The cases of incompatibility as well as the limits to the number of offices provided for by law, regulations and the Article of Association in force at the time of entry in office apply to Supervisory Board members, without prejudice to different binding provisions set forth by law.

The foregoing shall be without prejudice to the causes for ineligibility and disqualification from office set forth by laws, regulations or Articles of Association.

23.11 - Simul stabunt simul cadent.

If, for whatever reason, the majority of the members of the Supervisory Board ceases to exist the entire Supervisory Board shall be considered replaced as of the date in which the newly appointed members take office. The Shareholders' Meeting for the appointment of the new Supervisory Board shall be called as soon as possible in accordance with the provisions of Article 8.

23.12 - Removal.

The members of the Supervisory Board may be removed by the Shareholders' Meeting at any time, by a resolution passed with the favourable vote of at least one fifth of the share capital, without prejudice to the right of the removed member to be indemnified if the removal occurs without just cause.

23.13 - Remuneration.

Members of the Supervisory Board are entitled, in addition to the reimbursement of expenses incurred due to their office, to a remuneration for the services rendered, which is determined for the entire period of their office by the Shareholders' Meeting at the time of their appointment, taking also into account the remuneration due to board members appointed to special offices.
